Vice-President of India M Venkaiah Naidu Saturday said the "flawless" health of Vice-President M Venkaiah Naidu has not changed in the wake of the "unfortunate" remarks by a BJP leader on Twitter on the latter's health condition. "It is unfortunate that the BJP leader has expressed such comments on me and on my health. As I have told you yesterday on TV, my health is flawless...as it is. When I go out, I walk. I do exercises twice a week and I don't want any comment on that," Naidu said at the concluding session of the 13th executive council meeting of the Congress in the presence of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Naidu was in the news after BJP leader Sudhir Murti, who was a BJP spokesperson in 2014, had called his health condition "complete" and "very serious" in a tweet. "He is in complete health. He was shocked at those (allegations). He took no medicine yesterday. But he was shocked at what he read. It was
