Features Key:

- Unparalleled Player and Manager Illusions – To create the most realistic Player and Manager impressions, FIFA mimics Elite Eye in full 3D – enhancing face quality, close-up rendering and facial hair visualisation. Coupled with physics-driven player and manager animation, it replicates the detailed movements, expressions and props of the player. For example, take Pele’s iconic long-range free-kick, or Pele’s ability to cheat down the line, Nesta’s speed of play and Messi’s unequalled passing abilities – whether he’s curling in free kicks or dinking through the most challenging of defences.
- Pro Watch – Watch your team dominate the pitch like never before. Dash your Defenders to the touchline, and watch how they interact with the ball. See your defenders set up their tackle and use Awareness to guide the ball to a teammate. Or bring a ball out of defense and weave a through-ball to a fellow striker. Not only can you do all of this, players react in the face of chaos, superbly capturing all the individual behaviours, subtle movement and intensity of challenge.
- Tons of New Moves and Visuals – Enjoy nearly three times as many body parts animations, 100 more player types, and 38,000 new animations, providing a closer look at every player position. On top of that, EA SPORTS has baked in real animations from a larger pool of 22 real-life players, giving players more individual expressions, sport-specific attributes and celebrations than ever before. And with flexibility, player burden and more challenges to master, you’ll feel more like an expert than ever before.
- Highly Configurable Gameplay – Release the ball and forget all about presets. Take full control over all areas of football. Spend moments tweaking even more tactical choices, from deliberate looking for a pass to zonal marking, or rely on AI coaching to guide your match. Or play to an authentic contemporary game style by selecting the right player and experience experience.
- Pure Player Sense is Here – Feel and react with fidelity to the action on the pitch. No longer ‘possessed’ and confused by your opponents, your teammates, and your surroundings. No longer limited by predefined control schemes and coaching set-
